

US Express COVID-19 Policy

As always, our highest priority is to help ensure the health and safety of our employees and customers while meeting our service commitments.

Here is what you can expect from us:

- Constant monitoring of our air and ground networks to address potential sources of disruption and re-route as necessary to ensure on time deliveries.
- Compliance with applicable government regulations related to the containment of Coronavirus.
- Careful guidance and information being provided to our employees regarding the best ways to prevent the spread of infection, based on guidelines from the Center for Disease Control (CDC).
- Ability to track your deliveries as always with email notifications to you and your colleagues at each step of the shipping process.
